

At MorningStar, it's in the air. You can feel it. You can see it every day: our staff flat-out loving our residents, loving them like they do their own moms and dads.

To be sure, we have a full menu of services and activities; our graciously appointed spaces are thoughtfully designed just for seniors. But we brag most about the love found here.

I find it hard to express how special everyone is at MorningStar. You all are responsible for lifting us and giving us back the joy of companionship with peers. And you give us the security of being well cared for on a daily basis. —Resident

Casting a new light

OUR ROOTS & WINGS

The MorningStar mission, penned by Founder/CEO Ken Jaeger at our inception in 2003, resonates at every level, leading our decisions, aligning our priorities and defining our behavior. It remains today the signal fire of our success: To honor God in our business practices and relationships; To value all seniors as gifted and contributing individuals; To invest generously in our team's ability to serve well.

BETTER TOGETHER

Life is patently about community. Therefore, every space, every activity at MorningStar is designed to foster community. Wellness. Laugh-out-loud moments.

Our bistro and theatre are stylish, but relaxed enough to put your feet up. So go ahead, socialize to the full or cozy up to the hearth with a great read. The day is yours for the making.

IT'S ABOUT LIVING

The prevailing spirit of MorningStar is a decision—a choice, to see life through a lens of grace, hope and joy. In this, we are energized daily to serve the nation's treasures: our seniors.

Radiance, our customer service initiative, empowers every team member to create personal, memorable and meaningful moments for all those beneath our roof.

KNOW YOU'RE LOVED

Grand lobbies alone cannot entirely win a family's confidence. For whatever its amenities, however attractive its grounds, a senior living community is successful only through its service and hospitality team.

Ours know that to love and serve others is the highest expression of living. They aren't the employees of MorningStar; they are its heartbeat.
