

5 Reasons to Use CareAvailability.com at Your Hospital

1 EFFICIENT CARE PLANNING

Easily search for available options, share curated lists with decision makers, and even explore brochures and images to expedite the discharge decision making process.

2 PATIENT FREEDOM

We prioritize patient freedom of choice by offering a comprehensive database of resources specific to senior housing and care. All licensed providers are included, no buy-in required.

3 REAL-TIME UPDATES

See real-time availability updates by the providers around you. This ensures that those browsing receive the most current information regarding resource availability.

4 PRIVACY

Unlike other sites, we prioritize your patients' privacy. We do not collect or sell any personal information. Families are never once required to provide personal details to search for and access available options that can help.

5 COST FREE

Our platform offers open access to provider information for hospitals, providers, & families alike.

You can filter by distance, availability, payment accepted, Medicaid, start of care date, or room type.

Call or email us for a short demo to see how we can help save discharge planners hours every day.
